

Xuhui district: Shanghai's heart that keeps the city flowing

Architecture:

Xuhui = diverse architecture styles (French, Spanish, British, Chinese...) Attractive, touristic area Fun/original + functional Residential buildings + small commercial storefronts + entertainment venues Balance: parcs, gardens to relax, stay healthy & social + businesses, offices, shops... for the economy

Security:

Vital to the population Guards & police & cameras present in busy areas and residential neighborhoods Increases peace of mind, less crime, city+ attractive Feeling of safety

Transportation:

Vital to the population Metro 1 9 10 11 in Xujiahui station: connections to the entire city, can get anywhere in Shanghai in under 1h. Symbol of a fruitful city Movement=action=growth

Culture:

Xuhui = diverse architecture styles (French, Spanish, British, Chinese...) Urban culture = symbols of history and art Historical monuments/statues add meaning to the place, reminders of how things have evolved Theatres, museums, traditional music in parcs, dances Enhances sense of cultural identity Positive impact on the mental state of urban residents, Improves people's well-being and education

Group 3

Angelina Benyahia (leader), Marie-Lou Leroy

21124653 ZhaoZhenYu, 21124639 JiaYongLiang, 21124649 ZhangLingYu